

ALMANAK

JURASSIC BLUES AND FUNKY ROCK

PRESS KIT

THE STORY

Almanak is an instrumental fusion. An alchemy of powerful rock, electrifying funk and exultant blues. Keen guitar, mistreated drums, hammered organ, beaten bass and howling' harp. A detonating experience that entrust the air with a mesmerizing energy.

The band was founded by four lifetime buddies, ten years of touring, hundreds of gigs, four albums, two smoked tourvans and a furious and contagious passion on stage.

THE LINE UP

Marius Barthelet : Guitars, lead voice

Nicolas « Bill » Brocart : Keys, organ, harp, voice

Romain Carron : Bass, voice

Gaetan Barthelet : Drums

GREETINGS FROM NOWHERE

THE ALBUM.

For its fourth album, Greetings From Nowhere, the french quartet Almanak gives us a powerful blues and a devilishly groovy show.

Six sincere songs inspired by fears, anguishes and hopes of their generation, propelled by a virtuosic guitar, a deep and aerial Hammond organ a groovy bass and powerful drums.

NEED A BREEZE

THE SONG.

Wanna go away ? You can't.

The crazy months we went through inspired this song : wasted time cannot be recovered.

Because all is about time.

And it irremediably runs out.

When you realize it, deeply in your mind, it can be frightening and you want to stop it.

You want to have a break, to take a breath, you need a breeze.
